

Overtime counts when calculating statutory holiday pay

Workers are entitled to overtime payments as part of their holiday pay provided the overtime was connected to the performance of the tasks required under a contract of employment.