

Tribunal rules that workers are protected by TUPE

The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (TUPE) provide extensive protection for employees who work for a business that is sold or who perform activities for a service that is outsourced.

Whistleblowing held to be the principal reason for dismissal even though protected disclosures hidden from the dismissing officer

Whistleblowing held to be the principal reason for dismissal even though protected disclosures hidden from the dismissing officer...