

BDBF strengthens its employment team with the arrival of Roshan Dykes

BDBF, the specialist employment and partnership law boutique, is delighted to announce that Roshan Dykes has joined the firm as an associate.

Roshan provides pragmatic and strategic advice to both employers and employees across a wide range of contentious and non-contentious employment matters. His experience spans professional and financial services, technology, media and healthcare. He also handles Employment Tribunal litigation for both claimants and respondents, including whistleblowing, discrimination and unfair dismissal claims. He brings additional experience in business immigration.

Roshan's arrival builds on BDBF's continued growth, strengthening the firm's capacity to provide specialist advice on intricate employment and partnership issues for both individuals and businesses.

Recognised as a leading firm for high-value employment and partnership work, BDBF is known for outstanding client service, a strong track record in litigation and a uniquely collaborative culture. It holds top-tier rankings in the major legal directories for senior executive work and is steadily broadening its expertise in complex disputes and strategic advice for employers.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner said, "Roshan's practical, strategic approach and experience acting for both employers and senior individuals, makes him an excellent fit for our team. We're very pleased to welcome him and look forward to the contribution he will make as we continue to grow."

Roshan Dykes said, "I am thrilled to join BDBF, a firm at the cutting edge of employment litigation. I look forward to working alongside the firm's expert solicitors during a time of significant reforms to employment law."
