

BDBF boosts its employment law practice with new associate hire

Top-ranked, specialist employment law firm BDBF is delighted to announce the recent appointment of Margaret Welford. Margaret started her career in the law with a magic circle firm and most recently worked at a senior level within one of the world's largest banks.

Margaret's appointment demonstrates the continued growth of BDBF and brings the firm's headcount to five partners and 17 associates, in addition to its eight-strong practice team.

BDBF's ability to attract high calibre talent is testament to the quality of its client base, its stellar track record in litigation, the complex and interesting work the team does, and the collaborative approach it fosters.

BDBF has been top ranked by the leading independent directories for acting for senior executives for the last 12 years consecutively. BDBF also has a growing practice acting for employers on their high stakes and high value employment work.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner of BDBF said, "Margaret's many years of experience in both a magic circle law firm and in-house at a bank will provide invaluable insight to us in helping our clients who work in those environments. Margaret is also very engaging and bright. We are delighted that she is joining our team and will help us deliver more outstanding outcomes for clients."

Margaret Welford said, "I am absolutely delighted to be joining BDBF. It is a stellar practice, offering outstanding employment law advice to its clients. I am looking forward to bringing my expertise to the BDBF team and to working with the best lawyers in the field to deliver employment law advice unmatched by any other London employment law firm.”

