BDBF is delighted to announce the recent appointment of Anthony Nzegwu, who joins as a newly qualified lawyer from Ashurst. Anthony has a keen interest in discrimination work and looks forward to supporting BDBF's clients.

The top-ranked Employment Law firm's ability to attract high calibre talent is testament to the quality of its client base, its stellar track record in litigation, the complex and interesting work the team does, and the collaborative approach it fosters.

BDBF has been top ranked by the leading independent directories for acting for senior executives for the last eight years consecutively. BDBF also has a growing practice acting for employers on their high stakes and high value employment work.

Anthony's appointment brings the firm's headcount to five partners and 12 associates, in addition to its practice team.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner of BDBF said, "I am delighted to welcome Anthony to the team. Anthony is following a well-trodden path for BDBF lawyers out of the magic and silver circle to our door."

Anthony Nzegwu said, "I am delighted to be joining BDBF. As the go-to firm for senior executives, and employment advice more broadly, there seems no better place to embark on my career as an employment lawyer. I look forward to being part of the BDBF family and working with the team on sector-leading cases."
