

BDBF further strengthens its associate pool with new hire

BDBF is delighted to announce the appointment of Julia Gargan, who joins the firm from Harbottle & Lewis. Julia advises on the full range of employment issues with a focus on contentious and advisory work. She has a particular interest in disputes involving discrimination.

The top-ranked employment law firm's ability to attract high calibre talent is testament to the quality of its client base, its stellar track record in litigation, the complex and interesting work the team does, and the collaborative approach it fosters.

BDBF has been top ranked by the leading independent directories for acting for senior executives for the last ten years consecutively. BDBF also has a growing practice acting for employers on their high stakes and high value employment work.

Julia's appointment brings the firm's headcount to six partners and 13 other lawyers, in addition to its seven-strong practice team.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner of BDBF said, "We are delighted to bring Julia on board as we continue to cement our position as the 'go-to' firm for high-value and high-stakes employment disputes and advice."

Julia Gargan said, "I am very excited to join BDBF and work with the firm's incredible team of employment lawyers. The firm often acts on cases at the cutting edge of employment law and its reputation for Senior Executive work is second to none. I am therefore really looking forward to getting involved in the wide range of work available."

