

BDBF welcomes new associate Abi Harindra

BDBF, the market-leading employment and partnership law boutique, is pleased to welcome Abi Harindra as a new associate.

Abi brings valuable experience advising both employers and senior executives across a broad spectrum of contentious and non-contentious employment issues. Her practice spans financial services, start-ups and family offices, and she has appeared before the Employment Tribunal and Employment Appeal Tribunal.

Her arrival continues BDBF's strong momentum, supporting the firm's ability to deliver expert support on complex employment and partnership matters for both individuals and organisations.

BDBF has established itself as the go-to firm for high-stakes employment and partnership work through its exceptional client service, delivering successful outcomes and distinctive collaborative environment. The firm maintains tier-one rankings in the leading legal directories for senior executive matters, is highly ranked for partnership work and continues to expand its capabilities advising employers on sophisticated disputes and strategic advisory work.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner said, "Abi's broad experience of acting on both sides (employers and senior individuals) is a really good match with our practice. We are delighted to welcome her on board."

Abi Harindra said, "I am delighted to be joining BDBF and excited to work alongside such a highly regarded employment team. I look forward to being part of the firm's continued growth and success."

