

Lunchtime Webinar – Sexual harassment at work: What employers need to know

LUNCHTIME WEBINAR – 25 APRIL 2023

Sexual harassment in the workplace is nothing new, but over the last few years we have seen an intense focus on the issue following several high-profile scandals and the #MeToo movement which encouraged victims of harassment to speak up about their experiences.

In our latest webinar, our expert team will unravel the legal framework and consider the steps that employers need to take when faced with allegations of sexual harassment at work. We will cover the following areas:

- What is sexual harassment? Who is protected and who is liable?
- How should employers respond to complaints of sexual harassment?
- What should an employer do if it suspects that a criminal offence has been committed and/or a regulatory obligation has been breached?

- What kinds of claims could employers face from victims and those accused of sexual harassment?
